

Syllabus supplement

Instructional continuity

Instructional continuity plans will be posted to the discussion board if UNL is closed due to inclement weather or for other reasons.

Students with disabilities

Students with disabilities are encouraged to contact the instructor for a confidential discussion of their individual needs for academic accommodation. It is the policy of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln to provide flexible and individualized accommodation to students with documented disabilities that may affect their ability to fully participate in course activities or to meet course requirements. To receive accommodation services, students must be registered with the Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) office, 232 Canfield Administration, 472-3787 voice or TTY.

Academic integrity statement

Academic honesty is essential to the existence and integrity of an academic institution. The responsibility for maintaining that integrity is shared by all members of the academic community. Students are expected to adhere to guidelines concerning academic dishonesty outlined in the University's Student Code of Conduct (<https://studentconduct.unl.edu/student-code-conduct>). Students who commit acts of academic dishonesty are subject to disciplinary action and are granted due process and the right to appeal any decision.

Grade appeals

The Department of Statistics grade appeal policy is available at <https://statistics.unl.edu/grade-appeals-and-academic-integrity-policy>.

Mental health and well-being resources

UNL offers a variety of options to students to aid them in dealing with stress and adversity. Counseling and Psychological & Services (CAPS) is a multidisciplinary team of psychologists and counselors that works collaboratively with Nebraska students to help them explore their feelings and thoughts and learn helpful ways to improve their mental, psychological, and emotional well-being when issues arise. CAPS can be reached by calling 402-472-7450. Big Red Resilience & Well-Being (BRRWB) provides one-on-one well-being coaching to any student who wants to enhance their well-being. Trained well-being coaches help students create and be grateful for positive experiences, practice resilience and self-compassion, and find support as they need it. BRRWB can be reached by calling 402-472-8770.

Emergency response

- Fire Alarm (or other evacuation): In the event of a fire alarm: Gather belongings (Purse, keys, cellphone, N-Card, etc.) and use the nearest exit to leave the building. Do not use the elevators. After exiting notify emergency personnel of the location of persons unable to exit the building. Do not return to building unless told to do so by emergency personnel.
- Tornado Warning: When sirens sound, move to the lowest interior area of building and seek shelter. Stay away from windows and stay near an inside wall when possible.
- Active Shooter
  - Evacuate: if there is a safe escape path, leave belongings behind, keep hands visible and follow police officer instructions.

- Hide out: If evacuation is impossible secure yourself in your space by turning out lights, closing blinds and barricading doors if possible.
- Take action: As a last resort, and only when your life is in imminent danger, attempt to disrupt and/or incapacitate the active shooter.
- UNL Alert: Notifications about serious incidents on campus are sent via text message, email, unl.edu website, and social media. For more information, go to: <http://unlalert.unl.edu>.
- Additional emergency procedures can be found here: <http://emergency.unl.edu>.
